- ☐ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a ☐ federal offense ☐ state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is

- ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the ☐ date of conviction ☐ release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).
- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings (B)

- X (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence X a preponderance of the evidence : As a result of a preliminary hearing, probable cause was found. The undisputed facts show that defendant was previously At the time of his arrest, defendant was using a name not related or similar to his given name, Dipo Oke. evidence showed that defendant had been deported due to a conviction for possession with intent to deliver heroin. Since his illegal return to the US defendant has been employed as a realtor and has not further criminal convictions. He is married and has a daughter. At the time of his arrest, defendant attempted to leave the building where he was working to avoid contact with ICE officers. ICE has an outstanding detainer against defendant. In light of his past criminal history, the fact that he may not work while awaiting trial, his probable conviction and the likelihood of serving jail time and eventual deportation, defendant's present option is to flee. The court finds that there are no conditions or combination thereof that will reasonably assure his appearance as required.
